

3-CASE:

In the tragedy of Othello, put the sentences in the table in the correct order to whom they belong

1. "His tyranny may take my life, but never change my love."
2. "He loved me because of the dangers I had been through. And I loved him for his kindness."
3. "Though I do hate him as I do hell pains, Yet, for necessity of present life, I must show out a flag and sign of love— Which is indeed but sign." "But I will wear my heart upon my sleeve For daws to peck at: I am not what I am."
4. Our bodies are our gardens, to the which our wills are gardeners.
- 5 She wished she had not heard it, yet she wished That heaven had made her such a man.
6. I kissed thee ere I killed thee: no way but this,
Killing myself, to die upon a kiss.
