

Case 13: Investments in technology startups

Investor Alexey is considering the possibility of investing in technology startups. He wants to evaluate the risks and potential returns of such investments.

Questions:

1. What risks may be associated with investing in technology startups?
2. What factors should be considered when assessing the return on investment in startups?
3. What risk management strategies can Alexey use when investing in technology startups?