

7-case

From the manager's story: In a short period of time, I grew up the career ladder from a simple worker position to the position of Head of a department. Now I want to develop in different areas of my activity. The company I work for, does not provide this opportunity, because... my department will only deal with personnel selection. How can I develop (grow) in these conditions, will I be a sought-after specialist in the labor market?
