Pedagogical competence. Children play with toys independently. When the time came to put all the toys back in their places, one of the guys didn't want to do it. The teacher approached the boy and asked "Vanya, why didn't you put the toys in their place?" The boy was silent, then answered the teacher "I never clean them at home." - Why don't you ever clean them up?- the teacher asked the boy. - Mom does it. What do you think is wrong in the behavior of the boy's parents, namely his mother? Why did Vanya behave this way in the group?
