

Case 2: Risk assessment

Investor Alexander is considering two different investment projects: investing in government bonds and investing in startups in the technology sector.

Questions:

1. What risks may be associated with investing in government bonds?
2. What risks may arise when investing in startups in the technology sector?
3. What risk management strategies can Alexander apply for each of these investment projects?